AMERICAN PAINTINGS
BELONGING TO

MR. NEWMAN E. MONTROSS, of 1380 Broadway, New York.

EXHIBITION DAY AND EVENING, BEGINNING
MONDAY, MARCH 7TH, 1887.

TO BE SOLD AT AUCTION, WITHOUT RESERVE,
FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 11TH, 1887,
AT EIGHT O'CLOCK.

WILLIAM P. MOORE, AUCTIONEER,
MOORE'S ART GALLERIES,
290 FIFTH AVENUE.
The undersigned, through his business as dealer in Artists' and Painters' Materials, established in 1870, has, during this time, been interested in, and to some extent acquainted with, our artists and their work, and for several years has given considerable attention to buying and selling American paintings, choosing those that seemed to him to possess both artistic and investment value. The collection here offered consists of paintings selected directly from the artists' studios, and, with a few exceptions, not until now publicly shown. The object of this exhibition and sale is to gain an introduction to a wider circle of picture buyers, and, by the quality of the collection, to advance the interests of American art.

The pictures are all owned by the undersigned and sale will be without reserve.

N. E. MONTROSS.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1. The highest bidder to be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the lot so in dispute shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

2. The purchasers to give their names and addresses, and to pay down a cash deposit, or the whole of the purchase-money, if required, in default of which the lot or lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.

3. The lots to be taken away at the buyer's expense and risk upon the conclusion of the sale, and the remainder of the purchase-money to be absolutely paid or otherwise settled for to the satisfaction of the auctioneer, on or before delivery; in default of which, the undersigned will not hold himself responsible if the lots be lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser.

4. The sale of any article is not to be set aside on account of any error in the description. All articles are exposed for public exhibition one or more days, and are sold just as they are, without recourse.

5. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can, on any account, be removed during the sale.

6. Upon failure to comply with the above conditions, the money deposited in part payment shall be forfeited; all lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be re-sold by public or private sale, without further notice, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale, shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale, together with all charges attending the same. This condition is without prejudice to the right of the auctioneer to enforce the contract made at this sale, without such re-sale, if he thinks fit.
